

Name:
AIA Registration No.:
Company:
Email:

Date:
Mailing Address:

1. What are the two major issues affecting the performance of a masonry veneer wall?
2. Name at least 3 of the 6 wall elements that should be carefully considered during the design of the building envelope.
3. What is the minimum size air space recommended for use behind a masonry veneer?
4. List 3 critical design concepts that must be accommodated as part of a sills' design.
5. List two critical factors to be considered during the design of a wall's shelf angle support.
6. What building element must be installed between a parapet wall cap and the wall assembly located below?
7. List 4 of the 7 areas that must be considered when strategically placing movement joints on a building façade.
8. Identify 2 important requirements for the proper storage and handling of masonry products on site.

Proper Masonry Detailing Online Exam

9. How frequently should weep vents be installed when using Arriscraft masonry products?

10. How should quantities of mortar constituent materials be measured when mixing mortar?

11. List two requirements that must be followed when applying mortar?

12. List the 3 types of well-weathering mortar joints.

13. What are the 3 principal benefits to constructing initially cleaner masonry walls?

Thank you for completing the Proper Masonry Detailing online course. Please email to techservices@arriscraft.com, or fax back to 519-653-1337.

Course Information:
Proper Masonry Detailing & Techniques
Program Number 00PMD2A
LU Hours 2.00
HSW

Your course credit will be submitted to AIA within 2 weeks.

